Exercises and Addresses on Wednes-day-Old Mystic Girl Wins Medal Contest-J. M. Young Nominated for

Dr. Ward Platt's address on Tuesday Dr. Ward Platt's address on Tuesday evening was a most eloquent plea for home missionary work among the foreigners pouring in upon our shores.

Dr. Platt is one of the corresponding secretaries of the Board of Home Missions and Church Extension of the Methodist Episcopal church with headquarters at Philadelphia. He said in part that some $24,000,000 are annually paid by Christian nations for the non-Christian world. Of this nearly a half. Christian world. Of this nearly a hair, or ten and one-half millions is paid by the United States. But only 20 millions out of our 88 millions of populions out of our 88 millions of population are in evangelical churches. This is not quite one quarter. If a sood part of the other three-fourths were evangelized we could evangelize the whole world in one generation Though we are but a fifteenth of the world's population, we hold two-fifths of the banking power. The speaker emphasized the thought that the American cities are the key
